Membership terms and conditions

These terms form part of the application and become binding when JWM Shooting Range approves the application and activates the membership.

1. Parties and programme

- “JW”, “the Range” or “JW Shooting Range” means the Joe Winter Memorial Shooting Range, operated by L. Bezuidenhout trading as JWM Shooting Range, at Portion 27, Peebles 31 JU, White River, 1240.
- “Member” means the individual applicant approved by JW. Membership benefits are personal and may not be transferred, sold, exchanged or shared.
- The programme is for individual private use. Commercial instruction, security-company training, organised training groups and unusually large private groups require a separate prior arrangement.

2. Application, approval and activation

- JW may verify the information and supporting documents supplied and may reasonably request originals or further information.
- A membership starts only after written approval, receipt of the required documents, the R500 joining and administration fee, and the first monthly fee or annual upfront payment.
- The activation date, membership number, approved tier and pricing category will be confirmed by JW. False, misleading or materially incomplete information may lead to refusal, suspension or termination, subject to applicable law.

3. Term, expiry and renewal

- The initial membership term is 12 months from the confirmed activation date.
- Where the Consumer Protection Act 68 of 2008 applies, JW will give the required expiry notice between 40 and 80 business days before the fixed term ends. Unless the member directs otherwise, the agreement may continue month-to-month on the notified terms after expiry.
- The first 25 approved members are designated Founding Members. While their membership remains continuously active and in good standing, they retain the original launch membership rate on renewal. Founding merchandise is a once-off, non-transferable benefit subject to size, design and stock availability.

4. Fees and payment

- Monthly membership fees are payable in advance according to the invoice or payment schedule issued by JW for the full term, unless the agreement is lawfully cancelled earlier.
- Annual upfront members pay the equivalent of 11 monthly fees and receive the 12th month free. The R500 joining and administration fee remains payable.
- Benefits may be suspended while an undisputed amount remains overdue after reasonable notice. Suspension does not erase amounts already due or automatically extend credit-expiry dates.
- A payment is treated as received once cleared into the nominated bank account. The member must use an identifiable payment reference and retain proof of payment.
- Any refund, credit, joining-fee treatment or early-cancellation adjustment will be calculated in accordance with the agreement and applicable law.

5. Price changes and pensioner eligibility

- The agreed fee applies during the fixed term unless a change is required by law or agreed in writing. Any fee applicable after expiry will be communicated in the expiry or renewal notice.
- Pensioner pricing is subject to JW confirming eligibility and may require reasonable supporting proof. The member must notify JW if the qualifying circumstances materially change.

Credits, bookings and benefits

Membership gives access to defined benefits; it does not guarantee a particular range or time slot.

6. Monthly credit allocation and expiry

- Bronze receives 6 monthly weekday-hour credits; Silver 10; Gold 15; and Platinum 25.
- For Bronze and Silver, one weekday range hour uses one credit and one weekend or public-holiday range hour uses two credits. Weekday and weekend use may be mixed within the available balance.
- Gold and Platinum credits are deducted hour-for-hour on weekdays, weekends and public holidays.
- Each monthly allocation is valid for 90 calendar days from allocation. The oldest valid credits are used first. Unused credits expire automatically after 90 days and have no cash value.
- Credits apply to one designated range for the booked period. Separate or simultaneous range bookings are deducted separately.

7. Booking and cancellation rules

- The Range operates by advance booking; membership does not create walk-in access or permit an existing booking to be displaced.
- Bookings remain subject to operating hours, range availability, maintenance, weather, safety requirements and the suitability of the intended firearm or activity.
- The member must give at least 24 hours' notice to cancel or reschedule. Unless JW agrees otherwise, a no-show or cancellation with less than 24 hours' notice may result in the booked credits being deducted. JW may waive this rule for genuine emergencies at its discretion.
- A booking starts and ends at the confirmed times. Late arrival does not extend the booking. Any approved overrun may use additional credits or incur the applicable additional-hour charge.
- Accumulated credits do not guarantee weekend, public-holiday, peak-time or consecutive availability.

8. Additional hours and premium benefits

- Bronze and Silver additional hours are charged at the standard range rate in effect when used.
- Gold and Platinum additional hours are charged at 50% of the standard range rate in effect when used.
- Gold includes up to 10 complimentary A3 targets per benefit month; Platinum includes up to 20. Targets do not roll over, have no cash value and expire at the end of the benefit month.
- Gold and Platinum may use available shooting rests and sandbags without additional hire charge, subject to availability, proper care and reasonable use.
- Platinum includes reasonable complimentary firewood for the designated braai area, subject to availability, fire restrictions, safety instructions and reasonable use.
- Gold receives priority early access and Platinum first-priority early access to bookings for JW-hosted competitions and events. Entry fees, event capacity and event-specific eligibility requirements still apply unless JW states otherwise.

9. Private companions

- A member may bring a reasonable number of private companions during the member's booking without an additional per-person range fee, subject to safe range capacity and any instruction from JW.
- The member must be present throughout. Every shooter must sign the required register and indemnity and comply with all range rules and instructions.
- The member must take reasonable steps to ensure companions understand and follow the rules. Unsafe, disruptive, commercial or organised group activity may be refused or charged under a separate arrangement.

Conduct, suspension and cancellation

Safety and lawful firearm handling take priority over every membership benefit.

10. Range rules and conduct

- Members and companions must comply with applicable law, the range rules, safety briefings and every lawful instruction from a Range Officer or authorised official.
- No person may use or remain on the Range while under the influence of alcohol, drugs or any substance that may impair safe conduct.
- JW may immediately stop or refuse any activity it reasonably considers unsafe, unlawful, unsuitable for the facility, damaging, abusive or disruptive.
- The member is financially responsible, to the extent permitted by law, for loss or damage caused by the member's or companions' intentional, reckless or negligent acts or omissions.

11. Temporary closure and service interruption

- JW may close or restrict a range for safety, maintenance, regulatory requirements, emergencies, severe weather or circumstances beyond reasonable control.
- Where practical, JW will offer rescheduling or another reasonable remedy. A temporary closure does not automatically entitle a member to a cash refund, but nothing in this clause limits a right or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded.

12. Member cancellation

- Where the Consumer Protection Act applies, the member may cancel the fixed-term agreement at any time by giving 20 business days' written notice in a recorded form.
- The member remains liable for amounts due up to the cancellation date. JW may apply a reasonable cancellation charge determined in accordance with applicable law and must credit any balance owing to the member after lawful deductions.
- An annual upfront payment will be reconciled against services and benefits already supplied, amounts due and any lawful reasonable cancellation charge. Any remaining credit will be refunded within a reasonable period.
- Cancellation notices must be sent to info@jwshootingrange.co.za or another recorded channel confirmed by JW. The member should retain proof of delivery.

13. Suspension and termination by JW

- JW may suspend access immediately where reasonably necessary for safety, suspected unlawful conduct, serious misconduct, document validity concerns or protection of persons or property while the matter is investigated.
- For a material breach capable of remedy, and where the Consumer Protection Act applies, JW may terminate only after giving written notice and at least 20 business days to remedy the breach, unless a different lawful process applies.
- A lawful termination does not remove payment obligations or liability that arose before termination. Any prepaid balance will be reconciled in accordance with applicable law.

14. Notices, changes and general provisions

- The member must keep contact details current. Notices may be delivered by hand, email, WhatsApp or another recorded method using the latest details supplied.
- JW may make reasonable operational or safety-rule changes on notice. A material change to the contracted core benefit or price during the fixed term requires agreement or another lawful basis.
- If any provision is invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to apply. A failure to enforce a provision once is not a permanent waiver.
- This agreement is governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa. Nothing in it excludes a statutory right or liability that may not lawfully be excluded.

Personal information and communication consent

This notice explains why JW collects the information in this application and how it will be used.

15. Purpose of collection

- JW collects identity, contact, emergency-contact, firearm-licence, payment and membership information to assess the application, verify eligibility, administer the contract, manage bookings and credits, communicate operational and safety information, process payments, keep required records, protect persons and property, and comply with legal or regulatory obligations.
- Information is supplied voluntarily, but the fields and documents marked as required are necessary to assess and administer membership. If they are not supplied, JW may be unable to approve or continue membership.

16. Processing and disclosure

- JW will process personal information lawfully and reasonably for the stated purposes and compatible purposes, in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA).
- Information may be shared only where reasonably necessary with authorised staff, service providers assisting with administration or payment, professional advisers, insurers, regulators, law-enforcement bodies or other persons where required or permitted by law.
- JW will take reasonable measures to protect information and retain it only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes collected, contractual or safety records, disputes and legal obligations.

17. Applicant rights and updates

- The member may ask JW to confirm what personal information is held and may request correction or deletion where permitted by law.
- The member must promptly update inaccurate contact, identity, licence or emergency information.
- Privacy queries or objections may be sent to info@jwshootingrange.co.za or 072 732 5105.
